

LiveOnNY presents: donation after cardiac death (DCD)

when: wednesday March 30th, 7:00 am (1 hour duration)

where: HSC, level 3, lecture hall 5 purpose: donation after cardiac death process and procedure overview and policy review , OR & anesthesia specific protocols to be addressed in accordance with Stony Brook University Hospital policy potential speaker: Amy L. Friedman, MD, transplant surgeon, CMO & Executive Vice President of LiveOnNY confirmed speaker: Brian Papszycki, BS, MA, hospital service specialist at LiveOnNY audience: MDs & RNs from the Operating Room and Anesthesia Department speaker bios: Dr. Amy L. Friedman received her undergraduate degree from Princeton University, her medical degree and general surgery training from SUNY HSC at Downstate, and her transplant surgery training from the University of Pennsylvania

Brian Papszycki received his BS in Biology from Stony Brook University and his MA in Medical Humanities from Stony Brook's graduate school of Bioethics and Compassionate Care *for more information please email Brian Papszycki at bpapszycki@liveonny.org or Mary Bennett at mary.bennett@stonybrookmedicine.edu

LiveOnNY

Caring for New Yorkers
through Organ Donation