Communication to Assessment Coordinators re: Welcome back to Fall 2023 from OEE!
September 13, 2023

Dear Deans and Department Chairs,

The below communication will be sent to program assessment coordinators this afternoon.

All non-accredited programs will submit the assessment of their second program learning objective by February 23, 2024.

To aid in preparation, we've provided resources like templates and guidelines on our website. Additionally, the Office of Educational Effectiveness (OEE) will host events to support the 2023-2024 assessment cycle.

Your ongoing support and leadership are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your contributions.

Best,

Catherine Scott, Director of Educational Effectiveness

Dear Assessment Coordinators,

Welcome back to the Fall 2023 semester!

First, thank you! Because of your hard work and dedication, OEE is pleased to report that we received 95% of program assessment reports during the 2022-2023 academic year! The SBU Assessment Council carefully reviewed these reports. You will be receiving a separate email with their feedback shortly.

Second, please be reminded that all non-accredited programs will submit the assessment of your second program leaning objective by February 23, 2024. Visit our website for templates, resources, and policies.

Lastly, as you get settled into the new term, we invite you to check out OEE's upcoming events to help prepare for the 2023-2024 assessment cycle.

- Looking for an overview of the assessment reporting requirements for AY 23-24? Be sure to register for our first workshop, OEE & the Assessment Process, via Zoom on September 15.
- Assessment Workshop Series 2.0 - September - November: Last year, we discussed the basics. This year let's strengthen your assessment plans! In-person and zoom options are available for each topic.
