Board Member, The Pura Sydrome Foundation, 2020-present

Member of Faculty Committee of Sullivan County Diagnostic and Treatment Center (The Center for Discovery) 2003—present.

Women's Committee of One Hundred: Project 2002.

A continuation of the work of WC100. We are scholars and activists attempting to change the discourse around welfare and welfare reform in anticipation of 2002, when the current welfare bill is up for renewal. Produced "A Modest Proposal to End Women's Poverty. (Published in Sojourner, May 2000; Ms. Magazine, 2001).

National Consultant for Forum '98. Participated in writing The Declaration of Sentiments 1998. Hobart and Williams Colleges, Seneca Falls, NY July 1998.

Women's Committee of One Hundred, Founder 1995-present.

This organization has over 800 women. We raised funds for and created a full-page ad the ran the New York Times (Aug. 8, 1995) with the message: Why Every Woman in America Should Beware of Welfare Cuts. We also have organized several lobbying efforts, news conferences and a vigil in front of the White House. The organization is committed to educating the public on the impact of welfare reform and formulating the issue of access to welfare benefits for families with dependent children as a feminist issue.

Welfare Reform Network, member. 1995.

Wrote and distributed "Wake-up Call to Women: The Personal Responsibility Act—Welfare Reform or Backlash?" on Internet lists and bulletin boards. 1995

Helped organize Rally and Teach-In on Welfare Reform, SUNY, Stony Brook; compiled Information Pack on Welfare Reform 1995; presented "Why Women Should Care about Welfare Reform." February 1995.
