

GETTY IMAGES / ISTOCKPHOTO / JREIKA

4 'All About Oysters'

Learn about one family's fishing history and practices during the "All About Oysters" lecture at Rogers Mansion in Southampton, 11 a.m. Thursday. Meet Gene Austin, whose father was active in the thriving oyster business off Greenport, and view a collection of memorabilia and artifacts.

INFO 17 Meeting House Lane; registration recommended, 631-283-2494, southamptonhistory.org
ADMISSION Free

SOUTHAMPTON HISTORICAL MUSEUM

5 LI Craft Beer Week

Get ready for Long Island Craft Beer Week, Friday through May 20. Highlights include unlimited tastings of cask-conditioned ales at That Meetball Place in Farmingdale on Friday and at the LI Pour House in Port Jefferson on May 18. "Town Takeovers" include more than 20 breweries coming to different bars and restaurants in Farmingdale on Saturday and in Patchogue on May 19. Check the website for a complete list of events and locations. Also, register on the website for a free "Long Island Craft Beer Week" pint glass. If you want to taste a 16-ounce can of "Craft Cares" beer, bring three nonperishable food items to benefit Long Island Cares at various locations.

INFO 631-793-1648, longislandcraftbeerweek.com
ADMISSION Free-$50 (designated driver tickets available at some venues)

■ More details on what LI's breweries are planning: newsday.com/food

GETTY IMAGES

Mother's Day Tea

Share a cup of tea with your mom (or other great women in your life) during the Mother's Day Tea at the Tea Room at Sands Point. You'll sit down for a snack of scones and finger sandwiches, and enjoy live music. Guests are invited to visit the historic Gold Coast estate or stroll through the Rose Gardens before a tea is served.
INFO 631-571-7901, sandspointpreserveconservancy.org
ADMISSION $35 ($20 ages 4-12, free for children under 4); includes parking

9 Dallae Story: A Puppet Show

A nonverbal puppet show about a Korean child named Dallae and her family takes place at 6 p.m. Thursday at the Wang Center Theatre, Stony Brook University. It focuses on life in Korea from 1950-53, and you'll see how the Korean War affected Dallae and her family and what they did to overcome hardships.

INFO 631-632-4400, thewangcenter.org
ADMISSION $20, (free 5 and younger)

ART STAGE SAN

Running 6-10 p.m. Fridays (weather permitting), at the LIRR parking lot on the Long Beach Expressway.
INFO bellmorechamber.com
ADMISSION Spectators, $3 per car

JEFF HEATLEY

10 National Public Gardens Day

In recognition of National Public Gardens Day (Friday), three East End gardens open their grounds to the public for free, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. on Friday. Visit Bridge Gardens in Bridgehampton, Madoo Conservancy on Saggs Main Street in Sagaponack and LongHouse Reserve on Hands Creek Road in East Hampton. After your visit, make a reservation at one of three East End restaurants that are offering a prix fixe dinner in honor of the occasion: Maidstone Restaurant in East Hampton, Almond in Bridgehampton and the Plaza Café in Southampton.

INFO 631-283-3195, peconiclandtrust.org
ADMISSION Free, reservations for restaurants strongly recommended